1. The German citizen, Guglielmo KUPPERS, son of Benedetto, arrived in Italy for the first time in 1934 as a theology student at the Pontifical German-Hungarian College. He was drafted in 1941, sent to Africa and then to Italy where he remained until 1944 at which time, so he says, he abandoned his priestly duties.
2. Interned in a camp for German prisoners in Pisa, he was released therefrom in September 1946 on the intervention of the Allied Control Commission which also assisted him in obtaining a temporary sojourn permit for Italy. Since that time he has managed to avoid repatriation and his last excuse was his marriage to Luisa Vittoria BERNARDI, (daughter of the retired Carabinieri Colonel Giuseppe BERNARDI), an MD, with whom he lives at 7 via Capodistria, Rome.
(Kuppers-BERNARDI) 4. Via Corsica Rome 1952 (office).
3. KUPPERS, formerly in the service of the Allies who suspected him of disloyalty, has for some years collaborated with SIOS Navy for which office he has completed missions abroad.
4. He gets his means of support from income received by his wife who owns land in the Province of Parma, and from commercial deals which he negotiates abroad (he is, in addition, the representative in Italy of the Mercedes-Benz automobile company), as well as from his information activity for SIOS Navy.
5. Concerning his contacts with suspect members of a Russian-German service, it has not been possible to establish if this is so, particularly since Subject is in Germany at the present time. It is certain, however, that Subject is a restless person, capable of becoming involved in activity of this sort, probably even for the only reason that he wishes to serve the cause of his country (Germany).
6. With regard to one Adalberto FUSCHI (not Alberto) son of Agostino and of Maria Teresa, born in Fivolas, Frosinone, on 26 May 1907, formerly the pastor of the German College at 13 via San Nicola da Tolentino, it is reported that he emigrated to North America in November 1951.
